Membership fees

Membership fees for Scen & Film are based on yearly earnings according to the following scale:

Yearly income	Monthly fee 2023
over 280 000 SEK	320 SEK
210 001- 280 000 SEK	300 SEK
150 001 - 210 000 SEK	275 SEK
Not above 150 000 SEK	220 SEK

○ Student member fees are 200 SEK per year

○ Fees for owners of companies are established on the basis as outlined below.

Company Owners

You who work in part or wholly through your own company can choose either to become a traditional member of Scen & Film, or to be attached to the Scen & Film Servicebolag. As member of the Servicebolag you have the same rights and responsibilities as other Scen & Film members, the advantage being that your membership fee will be tax deductible.

The membership fee for company owners is divided into two parts, the first being a fee to Scen & Film; 165 SEK per month during 2023. The second part is a fee paid to the Servicebolag amounting to 220 SEK per month. The fee to the Servicebolag is tax deductible as is the value added tax 55 SEK (moms) charged. The total cost for this new membership will be less than the traditional membership cost if your company has a declared net income of over 300 000 SEK per year.

USF (Scen & Film/The Swedish Union for Performing Arts and Film & Upphovsrätt Scen & Film/Copyright for Performing Arts and Film).

Incomes from copyright protected properties (royalties) from broadcasts of television programs, films, video, theatre and other media are increasing in importance for Scen & Film's members.

If you are primarily a performer (actor, singer, dancer, musical or performance artist) or author/originator (director, choreographer, set designer, costume designer, film photographer, animator) your membership also implies you are affiliated to USF – unless you, within three months after joining Scen & Film, inform Scen & Film otherwise. This means that all copyrights within the areas guarded by Scen & Film as stipulated by current law will be transferred to USF. If you are connected to SAMI (Swedish Artists' and Musicians' Interest Organization), SAMI has contractual priority of sound recordings pursuant to § 47 Copyright Act.
